ORDER

The above captioned debtor has filed a copy of an envelope reflecting that service of Bank of America's Motion for Relief From Stay was not done on February 6, 2017 as represented by the Bank of America. The post mark reflects that the motion and notice of hearing were deposited in the U.S. Mail on February 21, 2016.

Thus, allowing for 3 days for delivery it appears that the initial motion package was not received by the Debtor until after the objection period had expired. Consequently, entry of a default order in favor of Bank of America was not appropriate, and it has since been vacated.

To further clarify this matter, and in abundance of caution, the Court reminds Bank of America that the automatic stay remains in effect pursuant to §§ 105 and 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, pending further order of the Court.
